A Biblically Correct View

We have no hope knowing the Lord if we don't even know the first thing about Him.
The Lord is who He says He is, not who some apostate "preacher" says He is.

Dear new Christian:

If you've bothered to read this tract, then you must be serious about wanting to know God. So let's not play around; let's go straight to the one source that matters – the King James Bible – and find out what God has told us throughout the Holy Bible about Himself. We're not going to sugar-coat Biblical truths to make them more politically correct for modern liberals, so if you're offended by what you read here, you're offended by God, not us.

God is all powerful.

Judges 1:19: "And the LORD was with Judah; and he drave out [the inhabitants of] the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron."

Mark 6:5: "And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed [them]."

God is everywhere; no one can be hidden from Him.

Gen. 3:8: "And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden."

God knows everything, including what we are thinking and doing, without having to ask.

Deut. 10:3: "Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul."

Job 1:7: "And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

God is all good and has nothing to do with evil.

Prov. 16:4: "The LORD hath made all [things] for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil."

Isaiah 45:7: "I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these [things]."

God has mercy on everyone and doesn't hate anyone.

Ps. 5:5: "The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity."

Rom. 9:18: "Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will [have mercy], and whom he will he hardeneth."

God never repents, regrets, or changes His mind.

Gen. 6:6: "And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart."

God wants everyone to know the truth and be saved.

Mark 4:11-12: "And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all [these] things are done in parables: That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and [their] sins should be forgiven them."

II Thess. 2:11-12: "And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness."
